

AMINA AJAYI

London | aminaajayi3@gmail.com | 07506 161820 | LinkedIn

Motivated and client-focused aspiring chartered surveyor with hands-on entrepreneurial experience running a hair business and delivering high-quality customer service. Currently studying Geography, Business and Sociology, with a growing interest in the intersection of property management and urban planning.

EDUCATION

Christ The King Aquinas — September 2025 to June 2027

A-Levels: Geography, Business, Sociology — Predicted: B, B, B

- EPQ: To what extent does toxic masculinity contribute to violence and aggression amongst young men in black communities in the UK? — Grade A

Haberdashers' Knights Academy — September 2020 to June 2025

GCSEs: 7 subjects at grades 6–7, including 7 in English Literature, English Language and Geography, and 6 in Business

WORK HISTORY

Self-Employed Hairstylist

July 2024 — Current

- Built and maintained a growing client base through social media marketing and word-of-mouth referrals
- Scaled weekly bookings by 200%, growing from 1 to 3+ recurring clients per week
- Set up and ran a digital booking system on Acuity Scheduling, using demand forecasting to manage appointment availability
- Balanced the business alongside full-time education, sharpening time management and organisational skills

NOS Global

March 2026 — April 2026

- Conducted online presence audits of companies in Excel to support market analysis
- Learned client acquisition techniques, including cold calling
- Sat in on business meetings covering strategic growth, international expansion and high-value project acquisition

Browns Hotel, A Rocco Forte Hotel

February 2024

- Welcomed guests and answered enquiries front of house, keeping to luxury hotel service standards
- Cleared and reset tableware and glassware after guests left, maintaining high standards of cleanliness
- Managed customer service alongside operational duties

CORPORATE EXPOSURE

- RICS — Reinforced that gender is not a barrier to success in real estate and broadened understanding of the industry's career pathways
- CBRE — Expanded professional network and highlighted the value of personal branding, communication and relationship-building in real estate careers
- Colliers — Strengthened interest in real estate through exposure to the industry's career routes, inclusive culture and the skills needed to build a long-term career
- Accenture — Took part in a consulting and careers workshop covering commercial awareness, professional communication and analytical skills for client-facing roles

SKILLS

Soft Skills: Collaboration, Conflict Resolution, Strong Communication and Interpersonal Skills

Analytical: Revenue and Demand Analysis, Market Research Skills, Commercial Decision-Making

Tools & Platforms: Acuity Scheduling, Excel, Canva

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Reading Summer School 2026

A summer programme for aspiring real estate students, offering an early introduction to the sector through talks, activities and exposure to the wider industry.

London Stock Exchange Programme

A programme run with the London Stock Exchange giving students insight into financial markets and the range of careers within the City.